

Anthony Rothe Memorial Trust

Outline of format for making application for research funding for salaries for research workers and/or for maintenance costs

Applications for research funding must follow this format:

- 1. Name(s), Postal and Email Addresses of Chief Investigator(s)
- 2. Scientific Project Title (do not exceed 75 characters)
- 3. Lay Project Title (do not exceed 75 characters)
- 4. Lay description (maximum 2000 characters)
- 5. A statement outlining the relevance of the proposal to research into leukemia or allied blood disorders
- 6. (a) Name and address of Administering Institution
(b) Institution where project will be carried out
- 7. Other Funding Agencies from whom support for this project is being requested
- 8. For each Chief Investigator: Name, appointment, address, qualifications, percentage of time to be devoted to this project
- 9. Clearances from institutional Committees, where appropriate, for:
 - (a) Human Ethics
 - (b) Animal Ethics
 - (c) Biosafety (recombinant DNA and/or carcinogenic/toxic chemicals and/or radiation)
- 10. Budget:
 - (a) Detailed budget for first year
 - (b) Amounts requested for subsequent year(s), if relevant
 - (c) Justification of budget and length of time requested
- 11. Names and addresses of any Associate Investigators

Outline of format for making application for research funding for salaries for research workers and/or for maintenance costs (Cont'd)

- 12. Summary of Grant Support from all sources:
 - (a) Past support (previous six years)
 - (b) Current support
 - (c) Requested for next year, including applications to other granting bodies for this project

- 13. Aims of the project, listing specific hypotheses, relevance and potential significance (maximum 200 words)

- 14. Background and Research Plan (maximum 9 A4 pages, 12 point)

- 15. Publications of Chief Investigators) over the last six years, with a maximum of six regarded as the most relevant marked with an asterisk

- 16. Completion of certifications by Chief Investigators, Head of Department and Head of Institution on the attached form.